Why settle for the ordinary and mundane when you can own this modern, statement-making home? It's a rare find, boasting quality, craftsmanship, and functionality that's hard to match. This grand residence distinguishes itself with its bold dark hardi-board siding and windows, exquisite landscaping and fencing, and a custom-built pergola in the backyard that's truly a masterpiece. Ideal for those who love to host, it features a vast kitchen island, a covered deck, and the new pergola. Guests may never want to leave! The home is adorned with stunning cabinetry and built-ins, from the entryway bench and cupboards to the rear entry off the garage, to the walk-in primary closet and custom office shelving. The primary bedroom outshines all others, and the heated floors in the 5-piece ensuite evoke the luxury of a resort stay. Upstairs, three spacious bedrooms, a laundry room, and an office create an optimal remote work environment. The lower level offers a luminous family room, two more bedrooms, and another 4-piece bathroom. Located in the family-oriented Sixmile area, close to numerous southern city amenities, a home like this is a rarity and definitely deserves a spot on your must-see list!
