Welcome to this well-maintained former showhome in the Indian Battle Heights neighborhood of Lethbridge. This fully finished bi-level with bonus space offers 2,461 square feet of practical living space, suitable for families and professionals. The main floor features vaulted ceilings, a skylight, and a gas fireplace. There’s also a flexible space that could serve as a home office or playroom, with views of Squamish Park and the greenspace behind. The kitchen includes essential appliances such as a fridge, dishwasher, and stove. The primary suite is on the upper level, offering a 5-piece ensuite and a walk-in closet. The basement is fully developed with two additional bedrooms, a laundry room, a family room with a second gas fireplace, and a walk-out to the backyard. The outdoor area includes a concrete patio and a deck, with the backyard backing onto Squamish Park and greenspace. The home is equipped with central air, central vacuum, and underground sprinklers. There’s also a heated double-car garage for convenience. Located with easy access to schools, including elementary, junior high, and high school, as well as shopping and restaurants, this home offers practical living in a convenient location. Move-in ready, the property includes a walk-out basement leading to a backyard with greenspace behind.
